

SASMIRA has further strengthened its commitment towards delivering quality education by partnering with Regenesys Business School. This partnership will enable SASMIRA to offer globally acclaimed international management training and courses to its faculty members and students.

Regenesys Business School is the 4th Ranked B-School in South Africa and is the preferred educational partner to over 1000 highly reputable local and international companies across the globe. Regenesys Business School assists individuals and organisations across the globe to achieve their personal and organisational goals by enhancing their management and leadership potential. Regenesys Business School is based in Sandton-Johannesburg, South Africa and has offices in Mumbai, India and Lagos, Nigeria.

SASMIRA will now be able to access an enriched pool of resources, global knowledge and academic experience which Regenesys Business School possesses. Collaborative opportunities on the institutional level will be explored in the field of research, consultancy (SIP, industry, research, seminars, projects, conferences, workshops, MDP, FDP and training) leading to grants and academic activities.

SASMIRA and Regenesys Business School, South Africa will jointly deliver innovative academic endeavours by offering:

- Certification and activities for students and faculty in Mumbai and Johannesburg
- Summer or winter school and study tour programmes at South Africa
- Industry immersion programmes in South Africa and India
- Joint programmes in management and leadership for students and working executives
- Industry internships in South Africa and India
- Faculty Exchange Programs

This association brings in the much needed International bandwidth and diversity to the offerings from SASMIRA. Our future Initiatives with Regenesys Business School will create compelling synergies with international standards and open up new avenues and global perspectives for our students and faculty members.
